

CAMDEN SHOW

'The Purple Peoples Cutting'

There were smiles all round on Saturday 8th March as Camden Show kicked off our cutting year with a restricted cutting of 5 events.

Graham Lamey had a great day winning the Open on Jim Gale's Striking Distance and the $10000 Novice on Dave Morn's Winderadeen Catastrophic. Jamie Inglis won the $10000 Non-Pro riding Doc's Overlander and the Open Non-Pro was won by Vaughan McInnes on Con's Return. The final event of the day was the Snaffle Bit with newcomer Col Moxey taking out 1st and 2nd place.

Special thanks to Jamie & Sarah Inglis, Dodge Lamey and Vince & Sally Bonello for all of their work in putting this great day together. Also, a special thankyou to all of the non-competing cutters who turned up to help on the day, including Peter Costello and Jason Stevens-Jones who had travelled up to four hours to be there. The atmosphere was great and everyone was glad to be back in the pen.

TRAVELLING HORSE STATEMENTS

The NSW Department of Primary Industries has declared that all signs are that the state is EI-free. However, a Travelling Horse Statement is still required for movement in NSW. The only times when a THS is not required is if you are walking or riding a horse (and aren't walking or riding to an event).

 IMPORTANT ***

DPI Event Number for Cowra Show is HER-2361

You will need to quote this number when applying for your Travelling Horse Statement. Your THS will be checked upon arrival at the show. Travelling Horse Statements can be downloaded from the DPI website at www.dpi.nsw.gov.au.

March 2008

Newsletter

Welcome to the March edition of the Southern Cross Cutting Club newsletter for 2008. Now that things seem to be getting back on track after EI here is some catch-up news and future information.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Thank you to all who attended the last AGM at Yass in August 2007. The Election of Office bearers once again took place and the Committee Members were elected as follows:

President: Peter Costello

CHANGES TO THE BOARD

Klaus Schiller - Treasurer

Klaus Schiller is stepping down from his position as Treasurer of the Southern Cross Cutting Club. We would like to give a huge thank you to Klaus for his tireless contributions not only in the important role as Treasurer but also for his work at shows videoing thousands of runs over the years.

Joan Gibson – Publicity Officer

We also say goodbye to Steve and Joan Gibson who have relocated to Maitland. Steve & Joan, previously based in Cootamundra, were enthusiastic members of the Southern Cross Cutting Club. Steve has provided cattle on a number of occasions and involved with the organisation of shows at Cootamundra. Joan has filled roles that have included Publicity Officer, point scorer, newsletter writer, and we must not forget the most important job of all—musical director for many of our shows!

Again, thank you to Klaus, Steve and Joan for their involvement to the Southern Cross Cutting Club over the years and wish them all the best.
